Dear Colonel Knight:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you and your entire staff for your help during Black College Reunion this year. Florida Highway Patrol Troopers were a key component to maintaining the safety of residents and visitors alike. Despite the long hours and great challenges, your staff maintained a positive and professional demeanor.

Again, thank you for your valuable assistance during Black College Reunion and, should the need arise, please feel free to call upon me for any assistance that I may be able to provide to you or your agency.

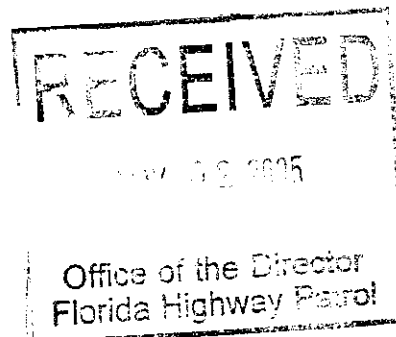

Sincerely,

Dennis M. Jones

Dear Colonel Knight:

On behalf of the Daytona Beach Police Department, please accept our thanks and appreciation for the assistance rendered by your personnel during this year's Spring Break Nationals, better known as Soundcrafters Car Stereo Weekend.

I would especially like to commend Lieutenant Kevin Vaughn for his assistance with the planning involved for this event. Additionally I would like to recognize Sergeants Mark Madei and Jim Montes, along with, Troopers Michael Jones, Earl Collins, Lewis Driggers, Craig Coleman, John Mitchell, John Dance, Kevin Brown, Chris Dickens, James Barley Jr., David Rodriguez, Kurt Glaenger, Brian Lewis, William Hitchcock, Chris Aguila, Domingo Casiano, Seth Dubinsky and Tom Dewitt for assisting with the implementation of the plan. These dedicated professionals worked long arduous hours under stressful conditions and provided quality law enforcement services throughout the weekend. Their dedication to duty, attention to detail and outstanding teamwork reflected highly on themselves and the Florida Highway Patrol's Office.

With the cooperative efforts of your dedicated staff and personnel, this year's Spring Break Nationals was one of the most successful ever.

Sincerely,

Dennis M. Jones
Chief of Police
